Hello!

I am a loving wife and proud twin Mama. My sweet boys inspire me daily and I take a lot of pictures of them. I want to create images for you like I have of my own family, to capture you and the people you love the most in the whole world in an honest and authentic way, without a lot of posing or saying cheese.

Working as a photographer for over 15 years, I have learned that life is fleeting. Photography is a way to remember life, the tender moments, the giggles, the kiss, the love. I believe photographs hold the power to bring us back into a moment, even as our memories begin to fade.

Nestled in the mountains on the west coast of BC, I am lucky to call Squamish my home. I love playing outside here and we also love travelling, snowboarding, biking, hiking and surfing. I am super passionate about giving back and do so by volunteering, donating gift certificates to silent auctions and hosting mini session fundraisers.

I look forward to hearing from you and learning about your love story.

My Philosophy

I love and always use natural light.

For outdoor sessions, this means choosing a time close as possible to sunset. I am sure you have heard the term 'Magic or Golden hour'.

For at home newborn sessions it means we'll be in the brightest rooms with the biggest or most windows.

My focus is to create natural and beautiful images of your family having fun, being yourselves and so in love.

The experience is meant to be stress free and full of laughs - there will be some tickling involved for kids of all ages :)

Whether you are pregnant with your first or celebrating your child's graduation, life is full of milestones to be celebrated with beautiful imagery.

In my 15 years, I have extensive experience working with children of all ages.

From at home newborn sessions with fussy babies to teenagers who'd rather be somewhere else, I have seen it all.

My calm and relaxed personality allows me to keep everyone at ease and voila! we will create some photo magic together.

“There is something magical about capturing expressions and moments of your children. Vairdy’s work achieved this so well, it brought tears to our eyes. There is an intense love in those photos.”

The Experience

before your session

- consultation over the phone to plan your session details like wardrobe, location and timing
- I will email you a detailed getting ready guide with tips on what to wear and how to prepare

at your session

- we meet up, take a few minutes to chat and then dive right in
- I will offer direction, if needed
- we'll share lots of laughs and have a great time together letting the babies and kids lead the pace of the session

after your session

- in about a week you'll receive a link to your private online gallery
- from there you can download your favourites and add more images to your package if you choose
- all purchased images come in high resolution with full printing rights
